

This site was treated for Japanese Knotweed last October, the growth was that strong and high we needed a cherry picker to get over it for treatment. The growth this year is now greatly reduced and with planned on-going visits be removed from the site.